

G
Enough to kill you
Bm Em
Enough to put you down
C G
Seems like everywhere you turn
D
Is like a hard wind comin' down
G
Enough to leave me
Bm Em
Enough to leave me here
C G
And though the room is empty now
D
I can almost feel you here

[Chorus]

D Bm D G
What am I supposed to do with my afternoons
Am D Am D
Know I won't hear your call, know I won't see you soon
D Bm D G
What can you say to me to ease my heart and pain
Am D Am D
Could you send a ray of light to come down and dry the rain again

G Bm Em
C G D

[Verse 2]

G
I'd give you diamonds
Bm Em
I'd give you rings and pearls
C G
If you could stay a while with me
D
And just hold on to this world
G
Feelin' sorry
Bm Em
For things I haven't said
C G
And there's a lot I'd like to say
D
Before your final page is read

[Chorus]

Enough to Leave you page 2

D Bm D G
What am I supposed to do with my afternoons
Am D Am D
Know I won't hear your call, know I won't see you soon
D Bm D G
What can you say to me to ease my heart and pain
Am D Am D
Could you send a ray of light to come down and dry the rain again

[Bridge]

G Bm Em
C G D
G Bm Em
C G D

[Verse 3]

G
It's finally over
Bm Em
It's finally over now
C G
And you can rest assured, my friend
D
'Cause you'll be restin' anyhow
G
I hate to leave you
Bm Em
Hate to say goodbye
C G
I'm sure to hear your voice come through
D
In the early morning skies

[Chorus]

D Bm D G
What am I supposed to do with my afternoons
Am D Am D
Know I won't hear your call, know I won't see you soon
D Bm D G
What can you say to me to ease my heart and pain
Am D Am D
Could you send a ray of light to come down and dry the rain again

[Outro]

G Bm Em C D G. Mercy